

Clipcam: the Webcam with the Clip

Room for notices and a nice looking webcam with big ad-space

This nice and stylish Webcam is a perfect place for your advertisement and logo. It has a lot of space for your ad message which will be noticed every time the webcam is in use for conferences, chats and flirts. It will be installed directly in front of your customer, where it stays for the next time. At the upper side, paper text messages can be displayed or stored, or the clip can be used to fix the "Clipcam" to a display or notebook.

Is there a better way, to place your slogan for less money directly to your customer?
